HERIN, June 22.—A checkup at midnight of casualties in the miners' riot showed:

Dead in Herrin morgue, 17.

In Marion morgue, 1.

In private homes here, 1.

Six other bodies which were seen by The Associated Press representative are believed to be still in the woods.

HERRIN, Ill., Jun 22.—The death toll in the disorders last night and today, when five thousand striking union miners attacked the Lester Strip Mine which was being operated under guard of imported workers, may run past 40, it was said tonight by those in touch with the situation although only 27 persons positively are known to be dead. In the Herrin hospital are eight wounded men only one a miner, and six are believed to be fatally injured. There were nine but one died.

A miner told The Associated Press correspondent that he had seen 15 bodies thrown into a pond with rocks around their neck today. About 20 imported workers are missing.

Checking the death list has proved almost impossible. The victims, all but three of them imported workers so far as is known, were found scattered over an area within several miles of the mine. Some were hanged, some were burned when the mine was fired, others were beaten to death, and the majority fell before the scores of bullets poured into them.

"Bloody" Williamson county, so-called because of several riots, tonight was outwardly calm, but there was a noticeable undercurrent which kept everybody on edge and wondering if further trouble might be expected. The correspondent talked with scores of miners today and about half of them were certain that there would be no further disorder if there was no attempt to reopen mines while the other half said they were afraid some men might not be held back.

The situation was reported by county officials to be quiet.

Bodies Lay Along Roads

The scenes of death today were as gruesome as any in a real war. Bodies with many parts shot away lay along the roadways or were strung from trees, men wounded and dying were stretched out on roads and in fields with none of the hundreds of passersby able to lend a helping hand. Attempts to assist the wounded in the early part of the day brought rebuffs from the spectators backed in some cases by drawn pistols.

Later the feeling quieted down and some of the wounded were taken to hospitals.

It is understood that there will be no attempt to reopen any of the mines until the strike is settled.

Attackers Went Over the Top

When the attackers went over the top into the besieged mine this morning there were some 50 or 60 workers and guards there. What has become of those not in the known dead and wounded list cannot be said. Some of them

JUDGE DAVID IN CLASH WITH THE STATES ATTORNEY

Instructs Jury to Return Verdict of Not Guilty in Trial

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 22.—Judge Joseph R. David clashed with the state's attorneys today when the judge directed a jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty in the trial of nine members of the United Shoe Repairmen's Association of Illinois on charges of conspiracy. Assistant State's Attorney Smith demanded that the question of the defendants' guilt or innocence be left to the discretion of the jury, but Judge David refused.

The judge declared that there was no evidence to show that any of the men had been guilty of conspiracy and directed the jury to find them not guilty.

"If the court won't follow the law how can we expect jurors and lawyers to follow the law?" Prosecutor Smith asked. "One of the defendants, Leo M. Levenson, according to testimony of witnesses, paid William Burke $80 to break windows of shoe repairmen who refused to join the association.

NO AGREEMENT WAS MADE FOR MINE TO WORK

This Statement Issued Yesterday by Illinois Miners' President

(By The Associated Press)

CINCINNATI, O., June 22.—Forty-four persons, two of whom were union coal miners, were killed in the mine disorders at Herrin, Illinois, according to the statement tonight of Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois District organization of the United Mine Workers.

Mr. Farrington declared he had received his information from an official of the union at Herrin but he refused to disclose the identity of his informant. He also said that he had not agreed to permit the mine, where the trouble occurred to operate, which, it was said, was possible under the union's general strike policy to permit mining of coal to fuel utilities.

Mr. Farrington also said that he had been informed that the trouble at Herrin started after a large number of men had been "brought in from Chicago." Forty-two of the men engaged at the mine, he said, were among the dead. He declared that he did not know whether the men were members of any union and added they did not belong to our union.

Reports from Herrin that the men operating the mine were members of the Shovelers Union was regarded by delegates attending the American Federation of Labor convention here as meaning that the men were members of the International Brotherhood of Steam Shovel and Dragline which organization was suspended from the federation on March 1919.

Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation declared the brotherhood was suspended for failure to amalgamate with the International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers as was ordered by the St. Paul convention of the federation in 1918.

Mr. Farrington announced that he would leave tomorrow for Herrin.

SENATE ADOPTS CONFERENCE REPORT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Senate today adopted the conference report on the army appropriation bill fixing the size of the army for the coming fiscal year at 12,690 officers and 125,000 enlisted men. The house has yet to act on the report which includes an appropriation of $7,000,000 for continuation of work on the Muscle Shoals power project on which no agreement was reached in conference.

In adopting the report of its conference committee the senate gave its approval to a provision placing a six month ban against promotion of all army officers below the grade of colonel.

Promotions will cease July 1, except for colonels who may be made brigadier generals if the house agrees to the provisions. Report of the bill carries about $171,000,000 or approximately $17,000,000 below the amount it carries when passed by the senate originally.

Mr. Woodruff estimated that the earnings returned by the seized properties during the past four years amounted to $100,000,000 which added to the value of enemy property would make a total of $800,000,000 to be accounted for as against $575,000,000 given in custodian Miller's report.

Mr. Woodruff introduced a resolution for an investigation declaring that charges of Mal-administration, discrimination between alien enemies and American citizens whose property was seized and payment of excessive fees to attorneys to create a condition which cannot be ignored without grave injury to the good name of our country.

Promises were made to-night by Mr. Miller of Mr. Woodruff's charges that disproportionate fees had been paid by counsel, that trusts had been disposed of at unreasonably low prices and that enemy property had been released while property to which American citizens hold title remains sequestered.

NEW YORK, June 22.—A committee of three chosen from 50, the largest philanthropic, welfare, education and labor organizations of the country was named today at a conference with Will Hayes, head of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America to nominate a nationwide board to present a program for improvement of American movies.

The committee comprises Abe Haze, representing the Russell Sage Foundation, Mrs. Oliver Harriman, president of the Camp Fire Girls, and James E. West, secretary of the Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Hayes pledged the integrity and resources of "the men who have millions of dollars invested in motion pictures," to the fulfillment of any workable program which will benefit those who have "millions of children invested in moving pictures."

A glance thru the list of names of the older members of the Morgan county bar as compiled by Judge Layman impresses two facts. Life is quite an uncertain thing, and changes come so rapidly that they are almost unobserved. But the most impressive fact is that such a large percentage of the men in that list of attorneys became prominent with the passing years. The reputation of most of them for eminence in their professional work extended far beyond the limits of Morgan county.

These days when we so confidently look forward to pride in Jacksonville and Morgan county in the years to come, it is not amiss to occasionally take a backward look and to remember that this county has abundant reason for pride in the record of many of its citizens. The names of strong men and women are written there—names that are imperishable.

World wheat stocks will be lower on July 1 than for several years, the Department of Commerce announces. Due in part at least to the fact that the earth's population is still raising to much of another thing and too little wheat.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

Some of Mayor Thompson's critics would have the world think that he has "slipped" to such an extent that his influence is no longer a real factor in Chicago. Wednesday the city council appointed Dr. John Dill Robertson and two associates members of the board of education on the mayor's recommendation. A bitter fight was waged but the names were confirmed by a vote of 48 to 14.

Mayor Thompson still seems to have some influence with the council.

Good often comes from evil, so it is quite likely that the bloodshed in the mine war in Williamson county will so focus public attention upon the mining situation that a settlement will come the sooner. There is an increasing sentiment for a demand that the mines be reopened and operated while an impartial commission is seeking to find out what is wrong with mining affairs and fixing fair prices for mining work.

"One indication of the improvement of business," says Postmaster General Hubert Work, "is the postal receipts, which began last November to show a steady increase. For the succeeding months the gain over the corresponding period of the previous year has been around six per cent, until May, when it jumped to 14 per cent. The United States Stamped Envelope Agency on June 2, 1922, reached the high water mark in production when the output was 11,636,000 envelopes. For six consecutive weeks just previous to that date an average of 10,000,000 envelopes were produced each day. This shows that the business man who uses the greater number of these envelopes, is preparing to share in the tremendous business revival."

Cars Belonging to Clarence Large and Frank Drury Are Found Thursday—Wheels Taken From Large Car.

Automobiles belonging to Clarence Large and Frank Drury which were stolen Wednesday were found yesterday.

Mr. Large's car was found on the north Main street road just north of C. S. Black's residence. The front wheels and axle and battery had been removed and carried away.

Mr. Drury's car was located near Pleasant Plains. It had been taken by Raymond Floyd and Glover Pallard, both residents of Pleasant Plains.

GOVERNOR ORDERS 1,000 TROOPS TO BE IN READINESS

"LEN SMALL,
Governor of Illinois.
Commander in chief, Illinois National Guard."

To the sheriff the governor telephoned:

"I insist on an immediate reply to my telegram of the 22nd in relation to the riots and disorders in Williamson county, giving detailed and accurate information and what steps have been and are now being taken by you for the apprehension for the parties who committed these crimes and to prevent further difficulties or violations of the law. I insist upon prompt action and impartial enforcement of the law for the preservation of peace and good order. Troops are being held in readiness."

(Signed)

"LEN SMALL, Governor of Illinois."

The telegram to the state's attorney of Williamson county said: "I have no reply to my telegram of the 22nd requesting information from you in relation to steps taken by you for the prosecution of the persons committing the murders and outrages reported to me at Herrin in your county upon the 26th and 21st instant."

"An immediate reply is necessary that the guilty persons may be brought to justice. Further advise me whether the circuit court in your county is now in session and if not what steps have been taken, if any, for the convening of a grand jury to investigate the crimes committed and return indictments against those committing these outrages. I must insist upon a prompt reply to this communication."

(Signed)

"LEN SMALL, Governor of Illinois."

Governor Small ordered mobilization of Chicago troops instead of companies at Cairo, Salem and Carbondale when it was pointed out to him that the southern Illinois troops probably included union sympathizers.

The 132nd Infantry of Chicago is commanded by Col. W. J. Swanson. The 431st Machine gun company is also from Chicago and the 130th Machine gunners are from Delavan.

Other miners confirmed Morris' statements.

O'Rourke is not expected to live. He is one of nine men in the hospital, Morris being the only striking miner and seven imported miners are expected to die, physicians said.

The hospital was carefully guarded, all doors being locked to prevent any possible attack on the wounded men. Only persons who could prove that they had business in the hospital were admitted.

BERKELEY, Calif., June 22.—Scientists were attempting today to recapture the numerous millions of microscopic monsters called germs which escaped to the un-offending campus of the University of California here when Hearst Hall burned Tuesday night. GOVERNOR SMALL GETS BELATED REPORTS OF BATTLE FROM BLACK (Continued from Page 1) of Chicago, two of the men tied with him who are still alive. The other three were killed. These were the six found by The Associated Press correspondent this morning and whom he tried to take water to help them. James E. Morris, of Johnston City, Ill., a young miner in the attacking forces, told the correspondent the attack had been spontaneous and that when the men went to the mine they did not really stop to think of the bloodshed that might follow. He was wounded early in the fight.

"I was on my way to Herrin," he said, "when I met a gang of fellows. They said they were on their way to run out those 'seabs' at the strip mine. I joined them and others kept joining us until there must have been 5,000. Most of us were armed and those that were not soon got theirs.

Mob Without Leader.

"When we got to the mine we spread around it. We had no real leaders, everyone was working for himself. It was just one big mob out to get the men who were running that mine. I am not sure who fired the first shot, but after it was fired there was real war. The fire kept up for hours I guess and several of our men were hit. Late in the evening I was shot in the arm. The wound is not serious and I walked back to where a group of our men were standing and they sent me here in a car. I wasn't there but I understand most of the killing was done after the miners surrendered. It was terrible. I know and I'm sure some of those 'seabs' really were innocent men. It's just the old story of a mob getting started."

Other miners confirmed Morris' statements.

O'Rourke is not expected to live. He is one of nine men in the hospital, Morris being the only striking miner and seven imported miners are expected to die, physicians said.

The hospital was carefully guarded, all doors being locked to prevent any possible attack on the wounded men. Only persons who could prove that they had business in the hospital were admitted.

RIOT AND BLOODSHED MARKS HERRIN RIOT

C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the imported workers at the mine, was among the dead. It was said that he was the first selected to be shot after the mine was captured and that he was given no chance to escape.

Hundreds of men, women and little children, some as young as 4 years, surged thru the morgue today to view the bodies which lay side by side on the floor with no attempt to straighten them out. Most of them bore no identification marks. All were mangled.

Officials of Williamson county today expressed deep regret over the affair as did many miners, but several of the latter told the correspondent that while it was regrettable, "no other course could have been taken."

The feeling could be no higher than half a dozen race riots broke out and on every hand a determination is expressed to back the miners in their strike. The county is one hundred per cent union.

In the morgue tonight were 17 bodies some riddled with buckshot and others minus various parts. In the morgue at Marion lay the body of McDowell.

The Associated Press correspondent and other newspapermen saw 27 bodies in different parts of the country and one man later died in the hospital here.

What has become of the bodies not in the morgues is not known. Several freshly spaded piles of dirt were noticed in the woods.

Usual solemnity of death is lacking in the local morgue. Hundreds of persons filed past the lines of bodies today frequently commenting on their mutilated condition. Children laughed, women pointed and the men chuckled.

mable loads of men are going from mine to mine in Southern Illinois and notifying company men and mine bosses who are in charge of properties but not members of the union that they must stop work in 48 hours. Such men so threatened are company men and caring for properties during the present mine shutdown but making no effort to mine coal.

Another telegram sent to Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners and signed by the Illinois Coal Operators association reads as follows:

"Word comes to us that automobile loads of men are going from mine to mine in Southern Illinois and notifying company men and mine bosses who are in charge of the properties that they must stop work in 48 hours. We are notifying the governor and shall direct individual companies to give similar notification to the sheriffs in the several counties with respect to these threats. Meanwhile we are anxious to know what you as executive head of the miners organization in this state can and will do to prevent the possibility of an recurrence of such demonstration as occurred yesterday at the mine of the Southern Illinois Coal company. Illinois Operators are shocked at such an occurrence following 25 years of joint collective bargaining with the miners in Illinois."

ARKANSAS WANTS BED OF RED RIVER

State Also Will Ask Court For Slice of Louisiana—Then If Successful Will Try to Get
Some of Oklahoma.

WASHINGTON.—(By The Associated Press)—Arkansas is preparing for filing in the Supreme Court an original suit in which it will claim not only all of the bed of the Red River, recently awarded to the United States in the boundary dispute between Oklahoma and Texas, but all that part of Texas east of the 100 degree of longitude west from London, and north of the 32nd degree of north latitude.

Counsel for Arkansas, engaged in the preparation of the case, stated today that seventy mile strip of territory east of the present boundary of Louisiana would also be claimed, and that the Supreme Court would be asked to remove existing confusion as to what constituted the "Mexican" boundary line referred to by Congress in the enabling act of 1836, by which Arkansas was admitted into the Union.

Should the Supreme Court hold the "Mexican" boundary line which was to be a part of the southern boundary of Arkansas, means the Spanish boundary line as fixed by the Treaty of 1819, then the Thirty-second degree of latitude, counsel for Arkansas will contend, must be the southern boundary of the State from Louisiana to the 100 degree of longitude.

However, should the Court accept Arkansas' interpretation that the "Mexican" boundary referred to by Congress was the Rio Grande, its decision must transfer to Arkansas all of Texas east of the 100 degree of longitude.

Recently Arkansas was denied permission by the Supreme Court to intervene in the Oklahoma-Texas boundary case, when it sought to assert title to the bed of the Red River, which was then in dispute. It claims all the river between Oklahoma and Texas under the theory that part of the enabling act which read that the State should be "bounded on the west, to the north bank of the Red River" by the lines described in the Cherokee treaty of 1829.

Arkansas may also decide in its bill of complaint to assert claim to a part of Oklahoma under the act of June 17, 1844, which it insists annexed to the State, "all Indian country" which had been attached to Arkansas while a Territory, a strip described as "bounded on the north by the north line of lands assigned to the Osage tribe of Indians, produced east to the State of Missouri; south of Red River; and, east, by the west line of Territory of Arkansas and the State of Missouri."

All of the working parts are more accurately and substantially made.

The working parts of the binder head are cut steel, case hardened.

The bull wheel is heavier, wider and higher.

Has three packers, one of which reaches higher after the butte of grain, thus saving grain.

The truck is much stronger, having trussed steel stub tongue, flexible axle and is quick turn.

The bundle carrier is very strong, being a new type that does not scatter bundles and works very easy for the operator.

Cooks and Operates Like a Gas Range Makes Gas from Kerosene

Note the features. Really more of a Gas Range than an Oil Stove, is the Alcazar Kerosene Gas Cook. This stove does not burn oil off the wick as does the ordinary oil stove. The Alcazar burner mixes air with the kerosene and makes a gas. You burn the gas, not the oil.

The gas makes a powerful blue flame which is concentrated directly on the cooking vessel where it is needed.

The heat is not spread and partially lost as with the ordinary Oil or Coal Stove.

It goes for cooking and baking. This means your cooking done quicker and less oil consumed.

Also a cool kitchen in hot weather. Burning gas instead of oil insures a clean, sweet kitchen and a clean stove and pleasant cooking.

You'll save money instead of burning it when you have the Alcazar Kerosene Gas Cook. You'll lighten your cooking tasks too and make things easier for yourself.

Let us show you this stove. Note how well it is made—"A Beauty," you will say.

WOODSON SHIPPERS' ASSOCIATION

A number of farmers in the vicinity of Woodson have formed a shippers' association with the following directors: Samuel Butler, Claude Winter, Nellis Crain, Rex Ranson and Edward Lockman. In addition to these there are more members and the idea is to work together in the matter of the shipping of live stock as to get the best prices and eliminate the middle man. To that end they have a manager, Clarence Fisher, who runs the business. He has no stock yards but when any member has anything in the way of cattle, sheep or hogs he calls up Mr. Fisher and informs him what he has. If there are not enough for a car load Mr. Fisher makes a note of it and calls up the other members to see if they can fill out the car. As soon as he gets enough for the car they are shipped. Suppose the car is made up of hogs from a number of farmers. Mr. Fisher takes a pair of shears and clips some hair in a certain place for one man, in a different place for another and so on.

He then wires whatever commission house to which he wishes to consign the stock and advises him that the car is coming. He then sends a description of the peculiar clipping on each hog for each man and what the bunch weighed in Woodson.

The commission house weighs each bunch separately, sells the load and mails the returns to Mr. Fisher who gives each shipper his share. By this means there is no middleman's profit and the farmers get all their stock is worth and the commission house in East St. Louis are reliable and there is no need of accompanying the car.

A few days since they shipped a load of hogs and were well pleased with the result. They now have half a load of lambs waiting for some one to fill up the car.

FORMER WHITE HALL RESIDENT WEDS

Harold Roberts and Miss Evangeline Foster of Plymouth, Mich., United, in Marriage — Other News From Greene County.

White Hall, June 22. — At 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the home of the bride's parents at Plymouth, Mich., occurred the marriage of Mr. Harold Roberts and Miss Evangeline Foster. The couple first met at the Baptist Service in Detroit, where the groom filled a singing engagement and the bride was a member of the choir. The Foster's later moved to Plymouth, where her father is engaged in the production of aluminum.

It is in the groom that local interest mainly attaches, he being a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts of White Hall. Completing four years of mechanical engineering at the University of Illinois in 1916, he spent a year and a half with the Northern Engineering Co. before entering the military service with the 85th division. He was trained for the regimental intelligence service, and had eight months of service overseas, attaining the rank of sergeant. He is now a draughtsman with the Ford Motor Co. at Detroit, and the couple will reside at Royal Oaks, where the groom has purchased a bungalow for occupancy July 1st.

The bride and groom are trained vocalists, and the friends of this promising native of White Hall feel that he has chosen wisely by the united air of good will will be received.

Large Strawberry Crop.

The unprecedented character of the strawberry crop this year encourages an interest in this crop, and it is now estimated that the growers within the city limits this year produced more than 20,000 boxes, the estimates readily touching around 25,000 boxes. The bulk were sold in crate lots at 12 1/2 cents per box, the prices in box lots being 15¢, from which it will be seen that the item from strawberries alone exceeds $2,000 by a substantial margin.

The excellence of the crop has created a demand that is extending each year, and there is no difficulty in readily disposing of them during the practically three weeks that the crop is available. There will be more grown next year than this year. All this production is confined to the city limits. Arrangements are being considered among the best growers to form a pool for the ready disposal of the increased production that seems to be in store for next season.

Sanson-Stottler Nuptials.

The wedding of a well known couple of the southeastern section of Greene county took place in White Hall on Wednesday. Emmett E. Sanson and Miss Ruth E. Stottler, residing in the Bethel neighborhood, east of Greenfield, came to White Hall by train, arriving shortly before 11 o'clock. They went to the residence of Rev. Roy March, where a party dinner was held, and at 2 o'clock the couple was made husband and wife by Rev. Marsh, the witnesses being Mrs. Marsh and Miss Wretha Bushnell. The bride and groom left for Greenfield on the train at 3 p.m.. They will reside on a farm, the groom being a farmer by occupation. The bride is a well known school teacher, having taught school in the vicinity of Carlinville for the past 8 years.

News Notes

The condition of Mrs. Rudolph Hicks of Drake, is now assuring recovery. She has been in a serious condition with an abscess on

WORK PROGRESSING ON STATE AID ROADS

Nine Grading Outfits Have Been In Use—Big Oiling Program as Soon as Rainfall Comes.

A vast amount of road work is now being done in Morgan county on state aid roads in preparation for the spreading of oil. L. V. Baldwin, superintendent of highways, said yesterday that rain is the only thing that is needed to put miles and miles of roadway in condition ready for the application of oil.

Nine grading outfits have been in use along the 180 miles of state aid roads and this large force has accomplished a great deal of work. Some oiling has already been done but the bulk of the work must await a rainfall.

The Vandalia road all the way to Franklin has been oiled with exception of three miles. On the Mound road a mile has been oiled and on the Chapin and Woodson roads three miles each.

The term "state aid" road is often misunderstood and many people have the idea that the work done on state aid roads is paid for by the state. That is not the case, and instead the work on the state aid roads is paid for from the county funds and the county is held responsible for the condition of those roads.

Before the passage of the bond issue measure certain roads in each county were designated as state aid. This means that an allotment from the automobile license fund was made to pay half of the cost of road improvement made on such highways, the other half to be paid by the county itself.

After the adoption of the hard road bond system automobile license money was placed in that fund. This left a condition where money was not available for allotment to the state aid roads. Therefore the expense for the care of these roads was allotted by the state to the county.

There is still another class of highways in Illinois, federal aid highways, but there are no federal aid roads in Morgan county.

MERCHANDISE HIGH

IN GERMANY

BERLIN—Prices on general merchandise in Germany have risen to such an extent that the foreigner no longer flocks into the country to do his buying.

Shortly after the war prices were low, so low that the stores of Berlin were doing an enormous business with men and women from countries close to Germany not to mention England and the United States, who found great advantage in buying here. Today Berlin prices are on a parity with the outside markets, according to an investigation made by a local paper, and the man on a business or pleasure trip to Germany now prefers to spend his money on amusements.

The best German suitings and the best German underwear are as dear as in England, and British and Swedish enamel goods are cheaper than German. Hence purchasing by outsiders during the past six weeks has been virtually eliminated.

MEN BLIND TO WOMAN'S SUFFERING

How many men, think you, have any idea of the pain endured by women in their own household, and often without a murmur? They have no patience when the overworked wife and mother begins to get pale, have headaches, backaches, faint spells or is melancholy and cannot sleep. There is help for every woman in this condition, as evidenced by the many voluntary letters of recommendation which we are continually publishing in this paper for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to give it a trial.—(Ady)

WOMAN SURPRISES HER FRIENDS

"After a spell of Typhoid Fever 7 years ago I began to suffer from Indigestion and gas in my stomach and colic attacks. This gradually became so bad that my doctor advised an operation for gall stones. A friend advised me to try May's Wonderful Remedy which I did with splendid results. My friends were astonished at my rapid improvement. I have no more bloating and can eat anything I wish." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists. (adv.)

That any of the beautiful lakes and falls of "Caledonia, stern and wild" should be used to set the wheels of industry spinning many in Scotland regard almost as sacrilegious desecration. And that opinion is shared by not a few Americans who are accustomed to visit Scotland annually.

But the promoters declare that the preservation of the natural beauties of Scotland is expressly provided for by the terms of the bill. And they add that when the hum of the electricity-driven wheels of industry is heard in the land, and dividends begin to come in, the cry of "desecration" will be silenced.

OLD TIME TELEGRAPHERS

TO MEET THIS FALL

Chicago—(By the Associated Press)—The 39th Reunion of the Old Time Telegraphers and Historical Association will be held in Chicago on September 14, 15 and 16. The organization has 1,500 members representing every state and all of them telegraph operators of the "old school." Some of the members have been in the business of manipulating the key for more than half a century and all have experience of at least a quarter of a century. Among the members are numbered men prominent in civic and industrial life.

B. N. Sunny of Chicago, president of the organization, is planning many entertainments for the visiting members.

MEXICO TO TAKE PART

IN CENTENNIAL

Mexico City—(By the A. P.)—

Mexico is doing made here of

"Consular officers in our great centers should have larger and better equipped establishments, with automobiles and other accessories to facilitating them in the discharge of their work."

American goods are in high favor among all struggling and forward looking people in the East, Bishop

Fisher had found, and this sentiment, he said, should be capitalized without ruthless exploitation.

COTTON CROP WILL BE

MEXICO CITY—Reports from cotton-growing districts, especially from the Laguna regions where the greater part of the crop is produced, indicate that there will be a shortage over normal production this year of almost 100,000 bales. The poor harvest is due to continued droughts.

SELF ACTING LIGHTHOUSE

LONDON.—A self acting light-house is the latest device to be erected by the Board of Trade, to warn navigators of the proximity of danger.

One has been installed at Barry

Holmes, Gower, on the Swansea coast and has given entire satisfaction. It lights itself when it gets dark and extinguishes when daylight returns. It requires no attention from keepers.

So completely automatic is its action that it needs no care except from time to time to feed it with chemicals, and each of its gas tanks hold supplies sufficient for two years. Its lamp is comparatively small but emits a very powerful and far-reaching light.

E. D. Pyatt has received a letter from his son Edwin in which the writer mentions that he has been visiting his old school chum Fred

Mayer in Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Mayer was formerly of this city.

JOHN DAY'S FUNERAL HELD THURSDAY

Many Paid Honor to Memory of Long Time Resident—Deceased Very Active in Affairs of Northminster Church.

A very large company attended the funeral services for the late John Day at the family home northeast of the city. Dr. W. E. Spoons had charge of the services, which were made especially impressive.

Mr. Day was one of the long time Portuguese residents of Morgan county and had for years been identified with Northminster church, serving thru a long period as a member of the session. Mr. Day was a man of especially fine character and his life was exemplary in every way.

Many beautiful flowers were sent by sympathizing friends and these were in charge of Mrs. J. R. Souza, Mrs. Ella Winter, Mrs. Charles C. Pires and Mrs. Russell Oliver.

Interment was in Jacksonville cemetery and the bearers were Cal Vieira, Alfred Souza, Manual Day, Joshua Vasconcellos, William Bieber and W. C. Sperry.

Dr. Spoons took as the text for an unusually fine tribute to the deceased "Arise ye and depart for this is not your rest."

Dr. Spoons spoke in part as follows:

"Once more I am called upon to perform this sad duty of paying this tribute of respect to a very dear friend, to an honored elder, a much beloved member of the Northminster church, a devoted husband and a kind father. It is a tribute of honor because he lived an honorable life; it is a tribute of respect because of the respectable character of the one that has passed away; it is also a tribute of devotion because of the devoted life to the duties so well discharged to his home, country and to his church. His life was an open book; every day was a page full of loving deeds and kind efforts to his loved ones and friends. His life was an epistle known and read of all he came in touch with; he inspired everyone to a higher and honorable life. His life was an example of one who had worked out through Jesus Christ that inheritance that makes life full of joy and gladness. He ever rejoiced in that inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that death not away, reserved in heaven for you who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be received at the last time."

A Good Man.

"I come at this time to say these words of comfort and hope over the remains of one of the very best men that ever lived in this community, I come to mingle my tears today with those of the Northminster church; I come to express the sadness of my heart to the bereaved family and to this community; I come to say this last word as a tribute of respect to this fallen hero in the cause of duty and right for the glory of God; I come with tears that would overcome, if it were not for the consciousness of the needs of the hour. I want to add my testimony at this time to the fact that I am a better man by having had the acquaintance and association with brother Day.

"I want to take as a text for a few words to you, a part of the verse found in Micah, the second chapter and tenth verse: 'Arise ye and depart; for this is not your rest.'

"This text contains in the first place, a truth which we are all very reluctant to admit—that this is not our rest. Who does not think today who and who does not act as though he would fain make his home in this world? We are constantly planning, thinking and acting as if we would make this world our rest; but God in his infinite goodness and mercy toward us has warned us that this is not our rest.

"A just estimate of human life is a very rare thing. Who of us today has a just estimate of life? It is seldom obtained except by a very painful experience; but whether we would like it or not, it is the truth notwithstanding that this is not our rest; but there remaineth a rest for the people of God. My friends, this was never intended nor designed by the Lord to be our rest. God who made man for happiness and happiness for man, never intended that this life should be our rest. Hence that very thought today ought to dry the tears of all the friends and loved ones of the deceased; that thought ought to comfort everyone upon whom this sorrow so heavily rests at this hour. The beauties of the world of promise should relieve the burdens and sadness of the world. For 'In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am, there ye may be also.'

Darkness and Light.

"The things of this earth are too poor to make us rich; too low to raise us up to that happiness that God has made for us. The things of this life are too limited and short-lived to fill the capacities of our noble natures. God has opened wide the door and turned us from the door of darkness unto the door of light. While you and I are passing toward the doorway, our brother has crossed the thresh-hold out of the darkness of this old world, going from 'seeing through a glass darkly and seeing in part,' to the fullness of joy that awaits the children of the Lord.

"In the second place this is never found to be our rest in actual experience of life. Every broken hope, every unsatisfied desire, every withered rose, every open grave, says to you and me, 'This is not our rest.' God holds in his hand that rest that remaineth for the people of God. Here the desires of the mind are never met; there they are. Here the wants of the spirit can never be fully supplied, there they are. Here the affections of the heart, which require infinity for their object and eternity for their duration, can never be fully satisfied; but there they are. All of these are satisfied through the Lord.

"In the next place our religion tells us that 'his is not our rest, for the things of the old world are polluted. There remains therefore a rest for the people of God, the Sabbath of the skies, a world in which redeemed souls shall be always in progress yet always in peace; always in hope but always in enjoyment; always aspiring after infinite good but always in possession of the good that is infinite. This is the crowning that and this is what in that day will await every man and every woman who trusts their all to Him, as brother Day has done, giving into His hands our all, who promised that He would keep that which we have committed unto Him against that day.'

"Prepared or unprepared, there is no resisting the summons when it comes. With all the skill of doctors and all the careful nursing and the tender loving touches and efforts of loved ones, and with everything that could possibly be done, there was no resisting the summons when it came for our brother to go home. I want to commend to you all this day the faithful, loving service of all the family in doing what they could to keep the loved one with them. But finally came the end of their strength and they had to say 'Farewell' for a while. Let me, my friends, commend you to Him who is able to sustain you in this hour of sorest trial; let me bid you look up and not down; for he has only gone on before to await your coming; and some happy day, through Him whom he loved, you can touch the shores of everlasting glory and rejoice with him and your Saviour in a home where no scenes like this will ever happen. 'Some day the silver cord will break and I no more shall sing; but oh, the joy when I shall awake within the palace of the King.'
